HOME NEWS

—John Ingrau has taken up his residence on the west side of the square.

—Read the advertisement "Hedge Plants" and govern yourself accordingly.

—Martha Richey, of the bottom north of Forest City, died last Saturday of lung fever.

—The cupola on the court house looms up in the distance like a light-house on a frozen sea.

—Adrian Pinkston and Henry Peret have each purchased a brand new "Excelsior" wagon.

—A bouncing boy made his appearance at the home of William Derr last Friday morning.

—A round thousand dollars was paid out in Forest last week, by apple buyers from Kansas and Iowa.

—H. H. Simpson, one of the pedagogues of Holt county forty years ago, died at his home in Bigelow last Sunday.

—Why is it that we have no more Teachers' Institutes? Are the teachers all dead, or have they lost all interest in school work?

—There was joy in the house of Richard Hahn, Jr., last Friday. It was a boy, and all parties concerned, are doing well.

—Rev. S. Carothers will preach at the M. E. Church both morning and evening next Sunday. Everybody is invited to attend.

—The new schoolhouse at Mound City is rapidly rushing skyward. When completed it will be one of the finest school buildings in the Northwest.

—Elder Waite, of the Christian Church, recently closed a series of meetings at the Minnesota Valley school house. There were nine accessions.

—We regret to announce the death of little Jennie, the sprightly six-year-old daughter of Reuben Arnold, which occurred last Thursday, the 20th inst.

—A valuable addition was made to the household of George Fries, last Friday, who lives almost five miles northeast of Oregon, in the shape of a bouncing boy.

—An article on the ventilation of public schools appears in another column of this issue. The article is full of good points and should be read by everyone.

—T. L. Price has sold his store in Watson, Mo., to the Frazer Bros., and was down this week among his friends here looking for a suitable location to again enter business.

—Boys, patronize home institutions, and if you want anything in the clothing line go to Nick Stock's. He is the best tailor in the west and guarantees to give you a good fit.

—Dan Martin has purchased the business house occupied by Reinhart & Blum on the north corner of the square, and will soon occupy the same with his stock of harness. The price paid was $2,100.

—Rock Fort is going to have a railroad. If the business men and capitalists would put their heads together and pull in one direction it would not be long before we could say the same thing of Oregon.

—One of the most accommodating and genial conductors that ever punched a ticket, runs on the Maitland train in the person of Mr. Ed. Kennedy. He is obliging, courteous, and always wears a smile for everyone—the ladies included.

—Every young lady, as well as young gentlemen, should read the article entitled, "Chaste," on our editorial page. It was written by a cultivated and refined young lady of Forest City, whose literary attainments are something more than ordinary.

—Educate your children by sending them to school and by placing moral reading matter within their reach. Give them an opportunity to keep posted regarding the current events of the day, especially in the State in which they live. This paper is the medium for them.

—THE COUNTY PAPER of Oregon, is a cheap better paper than it used to be. Boys, you are doing splendidly. Keep on doing so, and you are bound to boom.—Maryville Republican.

Thank you kindly, we will; we will.

—Those who have noticed the changed countenance of Nick Stock for some days past, will readily account for it when we announce that he has been a frequent young lady of Forest City, whose literary attainments are something more than ordinary.

—Treasurer Bucher took possession of his newly acquired property this week.

—Jacob Kinsley is busily engaged this week in re-roofing and otherwise improving his residence.

—Corsaut & Meyer are again on deck this week with a flaming advertisement. They are always up to the times.

—Hostetter not only serves oysters in every style, but serves them cheaper than any other place in town. Try him.

—Two cars of hogs were shipped from Forest City last Monday by Messrs. Miller & Cain. The average price paid was 6c.

—Isaac Enoch (colored) is making some substantial and attractive improvements upon his already neat residence property.

—Will Springer sold thirty-two head of hogs this week at $6.15 per hundred. John Tocherman also sold twenty-two head at $6.75 per hundred.

—John Campbell, who lives near this city, sold on Monday last, to Messrs. Cain & Miller, three pigs, less than one year old which brought $62.00.

—Holt county was the banner county of the state for producing apples this year. They are being shipped away by wagon loads and even car-loads.

—Messrs. Miller & Cain purchased fifty-one head of hogs last Monday from John Stephenson of Forbes township. They averaged 286 pounds; price 6c.

—Last Saturday was a lively day for our merchants. We counted ninety-six teams which were tied around the court house square at one time in the afternoon.

—Don't read Welty Bros.' advertisement this week for you might find out a place where you can buy clothing, overcoats, &c., cheaper than any place in the Northwest.

—The continued rains of the past two weeks had the effect to thoroughly soak the ground and insure a thrifty growth of wheat. Those farmers who had their wheat planted are in luck.

—It is with more than ordinary satisfaction that we announce that a sidewalk boom has at last struck Oregon square and with a broad side. About a mile of sidewalk being at present under the course of construction within our borders.

—We hardly picked up an exchange last week without noticing the words "rain, rain," or "mud, mud." What would become of some of our country exchanges if it wasn't for the weather to furnish the news?

—Business was booming in the vicinity of Kankel's mill last Saturday. We counted 41 teams which were waiting for "their turn" to be waited on. The mill if running night and day in order to keep up with the orders which are constantly pouring in.

—The matrimonial market is rather on the decline this week, but the baby crop is up to the usual average. This crop never fails in this vicinity, and is insignificant things as droughts, chinch bugs, floods and the like don't seem to effect this prolific article in the least in this vicinity.

—W. H. Shaffer, of Nodaway township was awarded the first premium at the Hiawatha, Kansas, fair for the best display of peaches and grapes. Charles Allen, also of the same township walked off with the blue ribbon at the Maryville fair for the finest display of peaches and raspberries. Tally two more for Holt.

—John Brodbeck, who lives three miles east of Oregon, had the end of a picket extracted from his thigh last Monday. The piece measured one and one-half inch long and three-fourths of an inch in diameter. It had been imbedded in his thigh for over three months. Mrs. Goulin & Eigenbaum performed the operation.

—Mr. Leigh Irvine, of Oregon, Holt county, proposes to speak in the old circuit court room, in the court house, St. Joseph, on November 1, on the subject of "Missouri and Immigration." Mr. Irvine is a fine speaker, and the subject is one which should enlist the attention of all who have the welfare of Missouri at heart.—St. Joseph Gazette.

—Mound City can furnish the material for a thrilling love-story, and no doubt the News of that place will come out in flaming headlines before long with something like the following: "The Baggage-master's Doom or the Chambermaid's Revenge." For further information apply to Ed. Kennedy, the popular conductor on the Maitland train.

—It is with regret that we announce the death of Smith McIntyre, one of the original settlers of Holt county, who died last Monday at his home four miles southeast of Oregon. He was one of the oldest Republicans of this county, and had lived at the place of his death for upwards of forty years. His remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of mourning friends and relatives last Tuesday.

All the People
are notified that I have without exception, one of the most complete stocks of Clothing ever opened in this county. It has been selected with great care and was purchased for the men, youth and boys of the county. Call at Ira Peter's, Oregon, Mo.

I Carry
A large stock of Trunks, and Valises in connection with my full line of Harness, Saddles, Collars, Bridles, Halters, Lines, Whips, Nets, Robes, Dusters, Blankets, Brushes, Combs, and Harness Oil and guarantee satisfaction in prices. Jos. R. Stone, Maitland, Mo.

Heavy
Cloaking Goods; just the thing for the ladies; Call and see these goods. They will make your eyes sparkle. Ira Peter, Oregon, Mo.

Try a dish of these delicious oysters, at E. P. Hostetter's.

Wanted.
Fifty able-bodied men immediately. A permanent job will be insured all winter. Apply at the Red Front Store. HENRY STERRETT.

Call and See Them.
I have the most complete stock of Ladies' and Gents' Jewelry in Holt county which I am selling at prices that will astonish you. HENRY STERRETT.

Country Produce.
Farmers don't grumble about the price of country produce when you come to Oregon. I am paying the highest cash price for butter, eggs and country produce of all kinds. Come and see me. HENRY STERRETT.

Reader
In fitting yourself out this winter, a nice, new Hat or Cap is a necessity. In selecting one you should try to get at a large and varied stock. Please remember that Ira Peter, Oregon, Mo., has the largest and cheapest stock.

Everybody likes oysters, but the question is, where can you get the freshest and best. Go to E. P. Hostetter and you will soon be satisfied that he can put them up in any style.

—Read Ira Peter's locals this week.

—Thanksgiving day is just four weeks from yesterday. The turkey gobbler is already hunting for a higher perch.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thos. G. Denney celebrated their golden wedding at their home near New Point, yesterday.

—Examine your chimneys carefully, as it may save your house from destruction by fire, before the winter is over.

—Miss Ida Arnold, sister of Mrs. W. H. Frame, of this city, was married on the 23d inst., at the residence of the bride's parents near Rock Port, to the Rev. G. W. Hawley of Atchison county.

—Levi Dodge, W. A. Mackey and W. M. Morris are in the city as witnesses to prove up the character of lands for which the county through the state, claims indemnity from the United States. Mr. S. C. Collins is, also one of the witnesses.

—A wedding in high life was advertised by Dame Rumor to come off this week, and our society reporter wears a sadly dejected look because of the failure. The reportorial prayers are going up for a speedy consummation of the anxiously looked for event.

—Read the advertisement to be found elsewhere entitled, "The Life and Work of General Garfield." It is a work of great merit and every young man should have it. It is worth a position in the library of any individual and we bespeak for it a ready sale in the county.

—Wheat and corn are both on the decline. We would advise all farmers who have not sold their grain that they will make money by doing so, this fall, as it is the opinion of many who claim to know, that wheat and corn are bringing a better price now than they will next spring.

—Summer still lingers and in the sunshine and rains the grass grows as in spring time. This wonderful autumn, after the fierce heat and drought of summer, a godsend to the farmers. The second crop of grass supports the stock, and each day of sunshine furnishes food for the hives, and the bees are busy when there is no green thing in the land.

—We notice in our exchanges that other towns are organizing literary societies, amusement clubs, dramatic troupes, etc., for the winter season's amusement. Oregon appears to be waiting for such enterprises to start themselves, or, in other words, there is nothing to amuse or to enlighten, nothing to talk of, and nothing expected.

—Several months since we referred to the fact that a test case had been presented to the Supreme Court by Leigh Irvine on the validity of the University Law Diploma. The case of record was held good by the Supreme Court last week and Leigh is happy because his view of the law has been sustained. Frank P. Blair, of St. Louis, presented the case.

—Next week THE COUNTY PAPER will contain a sermon in full delivered by Bishop Foster at the Methodist Church during the German M. E. Conference here. This sermon is said to be one of the finest and richest ever delivered by the Bishop and should be read by everyone. All who wish extra copies of the paper next week containing the sermon will please hand in their names as early as possible.

—Joe Hoblitzell has sold his residence property to Mr. Warren Davis, and we understand will shortly remove to St. Joseph. Oregon can ill afford to lose such business men as Mr. Hoblitzell and we are sorry to see him leave us. It takes just such enterprising men as Mr. Hoblitzell to make towns and we sincerely hope that he will change his mind and remain with us.

—Last Sunday night some scoundrels, who were evidently bent upon some mischief, smeared cold tar on the globes of nearly all the street lamps in town. No cause can be assigned for the act, but pure and unalloyed vandalism. Such contemptible fellows as these, could they be discovered, ought to be given the full extent of the law. We acknowledge our utter inability to express half the contempt we feel for such low-down work.

—Several cities in Indiana have published a dead beat list, causing no little stir. Such a list in Holt county would show many names of whom stand high in social circles. Several of our merchants have realized the fearful extent of dead beatism in our midst. A large cry is coming on.—Rising Sun Recorder.

The above is applicable to Oregon. As a rule it is not laboring men, or those supposed to be poor that beat merchants; but cheap aristocrats, who think they are too good to labor and want to make a living by the sweat of their tongues. These fellows nearly always have property (in the names of their wives.) They usually dress well, (at the expense of confiding tailors and clothiers) and have big schemes out of which to make money, (which never materialize.) Merchants should not credit these fine-haired "beats."
